SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Placer County Sheriff's detectives arrested four male juveniles responsible for two recent armed robberies and the burglary of Del Oro High School in Loomis.

Detective Angela DeWolf and Deputy Larry Jenks, school resource officer at Del Oro, coordinated the investigation that led to the apprehension of all four suspects. The Loomis-area youths have been charged with the armed robbery of the Penryn Beacon Station on April 26. In that crime, a shotgun and two handguns were brandished and they got away with an undisclosed amount of cash. The three suspects who entered the store wore masks and were dressed alike. The fourth suspect stayed in a getaway vehicle.

On April 29, three of the juveniles are also suspected of committing an armed robbery at a Chevron station in Roseville. Two of the boys were additionally charged with burglarizing Del Oro High School on April 20. They entered through the roof and absconded with school property.

Some of the stolen property has been recovered, according to DeWolf. The ongoing investigation was launched after detectives received an anonymous tip.

The suspects, ages 15, 16 and 17, are being held in Juvenile Hall. They may be charged as adults for the felony charges.
